Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, California Service Center is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's status because the applicant had failed to provide evidence that he had resided in the United States from January 1, 1982 until late 1986.

The director advised the applicant that he did not have to file another appeal form, as he had previously appealed another termination action concerning a different issue. That issue has been resolved. The director did grant the applicant the opportunity to respond to this new termination action by supplementing his appeal. The applicant did not respond to this termination action

An applicant for temporary resident status must establish entry into the United States before January 1, 1982, and continuous residence in the United States in an unlawful status since such date and through the date the application is filed. Section 245A(a)(2) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a(a)(2).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of the applicant's status. The applicant had not furnished evidence of residence for the period in question. On appeal, the applicant has not presented evidence in support of the claim. Nor has the applicant addressed the grounds stated for the termination. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
